CHARLES W. MEYER.

When the Gaston Hotel Stakes was decided at Memphis April 3, there was an immediate sensation in horsemanship. Owners, trainers, non-professionals and scribes united in declaring the winner, Charles W. Meyer, one of the greatest two-year-olds ever seen in this country, one probably destined to unheard-of achievements in the racing line. A few days later he was the central figure of another sensation, when it was widely reported that he had been poisoned, why or how no one could tell. Later it developed that a careless employee had left a bucket filled with fresh lime in his stall. Impelled by a lusty appetite, the young giant had plunged his nose into the bucket, with the result of having his nostrils, mouth and throat badly burned by the acrid-biting stuff. This affected him so that it was quite a time before he could be raced again and it is an open question as to whether he has fully recovered now from the shock then suffered.

In the Gaston Hotel Stakes, all carrying 118 pounds, he met Brannigan, Jordan, Abe Frank, Red Hook, H. L. Coleman, Lou Woods and Kaloma, coupled with H. L. Coleman he was the post favorite at 9 to 5, Abe Frank being second choice at 11 to 5. Brannigan set the pace to midway of the homestretch where Charles W. Meyer overhauled him and drawing away won by a good length, with Brannigan second two lengths before Jordan. Abe Frank was an indifferent fourth and did not run up to his private work. It was a case of not being entirely fit, as his subsequent running demonstrated. The half mile was run in 50 seconds, which is fast time for the Memphis track.

The colt was not started again until May 25, in the Kindergarten Stakes at St. Louis, where with 121 pounds up he met Trio, 115; Kaloma, 118; The Four Hundred, 110, and Lee Nutter, 108. Over such an indifferent opposition he was bound to be a hot favorite, and going to the post at 2 to 5 he forged into the lead soon after the start, and staying there without the semblance of a strong effort, won with all ease by two lengths, with Trio second and Kaloma third. He was kept in St. Louis in the expectation of winning the Junior Championship Stakes, decided May 8, but on this occasion he failed miserably. The track was heavy and it may be that the Schorr colt cannot run well in mud, although in this race he led to the stretch. The starters were Wyeth, 113; Monte Himyar, 115; Charles W. Meyer, 123, and Flora Pomona, 118. Charles W. Meyer was at 1 to 6 in the betting. He was first away and was first all the way around into the stretch, but only by a narrow margin, and when into the stretch Wyeth literally ran away from him and won off by himself by five lengths, while Monte Himyar outstayed him and beat him for second money by a narrow margin. This was a surprising downfall indeed for a supposed invincible, and it was said that the colt was short, because rain had prevented his being worked sufficiently. The time for the six furlongs was 1:20.

With considerable of the gloss worn from his reputation Charles W. Meyer was now brought to Chicago and started in the Graduate Stakes at Harlem June 18. Only four started, Abe Frank, 123; Ed Austin, 118; Arian, 105 (carried 106), and Charles W. Meyer, 123, and they finished in that order. Abe Frank was first by a half length, from his stable comrade, Ed Austin, with Arian third two lengths away. Charles W. Meyer got away second but made no showing of value and was plainly short and was eased up when clearly beaten. It was a fast run race, the five furlongs being covered in 1:00%. There was no betting at Harlem that day which was a good thing for the followers of the Schorr stable.

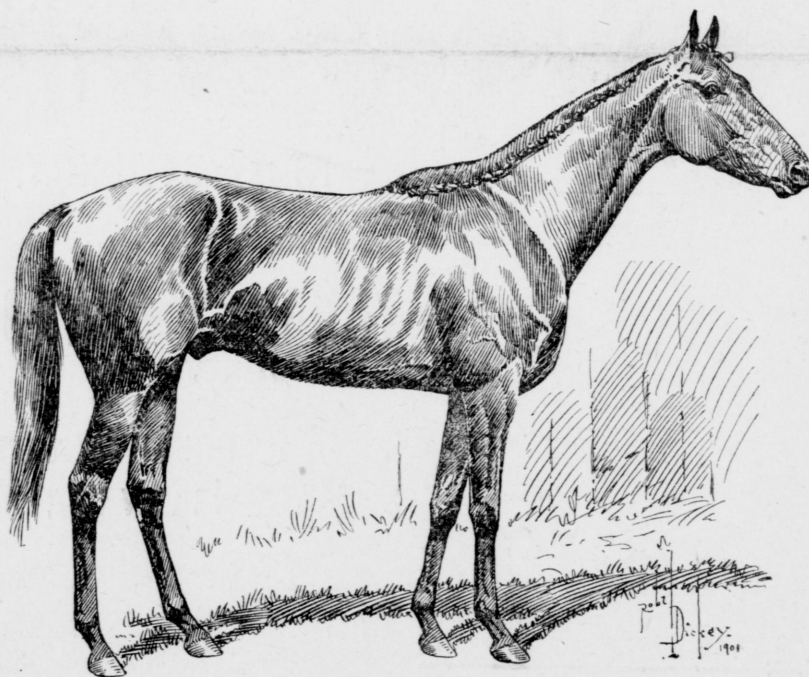

He showed something of the form that made such an impression at Memphis when he started in the Quickstep Stakes at Washington Park July 6. Abe Frank was an easy winner, but Charles W. Meyer finished with a fine burst of speed and was second, nosing Ed Austin out in the final stride and defeating such other good ones as Jack Rattlin, Memnon, Sister Jeanie, Wainamoinen and Autumn Leaves. His sensational defeat by Pentecost in the Maywood Stakes is too recent to require recapitulation.

RACING OVER AT NEWPORT.

Although entries had closed the day previous there was no racing at Newport yesterday, and it was announced that there will be no more at that track until some date—not named—in October. The immediate cause for the cessation of racing was, beyond doubt, the failure to obtain consent from the other organizations associated with Newport to the establishment of the iniquity called a foreign book, but why the determination to close so over their heads and as far back as possible and come down with all their might. This brings them back into the right stirrup with a bang and pulls the horse out of his stride again. Just to find out how much this switching of weights from one side to the other hurts a horse, run past a friend as fast as you can and let him just nip your coat with finger and thumb as you go by. He will about throw you down. So you will find out how much this swinging hurts a horse driven all out. I have not yet spoken of letting the horse's head go, which is the most important part of it and the hardest to avoid doing. It takes a great rider to hold his horse as well with one hand as with two. But if the boys would only draw the whip and use it right they would help themselves a lot.

The way to draw a whip is to have it always ready. Go to the bat in time and do not be in a rush getting it up. If you take it up too quick and too high your arm will throw you off your balance. Take it up slowly and do not raise the hand higher than the shoulder. Keep the elbow suddenly, without notice to the owners who have supported the track, was arrived at is a mystery. Racing at Newport is a losing business on the face of things and why it has been carried on so long under adverse circumstances is another puzzle. The flattening out was so sudden that a number of owners of indifferent racers must find themselves stranded high and dry, with St. Louis offering the nearest by relief.

USE OF THE WHIP.

Over at St. Louis a few days ago Gil Curry, while watching the efforts of some of the jockeys riding at that track, was moved to deliver some remarks concerning the use and misuse of the whip that are worth considering. He said: "It is really a pity that some of these boys do not learn how to draw a whip before using it. They all go for it in a terrible rush, draw it as a beset soldier draws a sword, as if their life depended on getting it out quickly. Then they throw themselves over in the left stirrup, swinging all the weight on that side and throwing the horse out of his stride, bring their hands high down. Then come down smartly, timing the blow to the stride and putting sting and snap into the crack with the wrist. Do not try to put in too many licks. Time them nicely. Put them in with zip. You never saw a good boxer, a good baseball batter or a good hitter of any kind that drew back quickly just before hitting out. Drawing back quickly destroys balance, time and distance. Keep the body still while whipping, see that the feet are evenly disposed in the stirrups, then use the arm and wrist. There will be just as much force in the blow. Then always let your horse know you are going to whip before you take your hands off the reins. If he is a swerver he will start then and you can hold him. Most of the swerving under the whip is done in the first few licks. Hold your left hand well down and tight. Then fan him instead of belaboring him. Do not turn half around in the saddle to whip. Indeed, the only part of the body that should change position during a drive is the right forearm. In all other

MISS BENNETT AGAIN.

Miss Bennett was the bright, particular star of yesterday's offerings at Washington Park, the speedy filly repeating her victory of July 9th, although the time was three-fifths of a second slower. At the weights she appeared to hold her field safe in the fine fettle she is in at present and justified this belief. Anna Bain attempted to live with her for a spell, but long before the stretch had been reached she drew away from her as if she was tied. The Rush, under punishment, made a bold bid to close on her in the final eighth, but she never faltered, winning all out by a length and a half, with the May colt five in front of Gonfalon. The last named ran a dull race, his speed probably having been taken away from him in some degree by his long race of July 10th. Anna Bain, run into exhaustion by Miss Bennett, quit badly in the final run in.

Headwater took the day's opener in rather a handy fashion. He was easily the best at the weights. After suffering Van Hoorbeke to run in the lead for the first half, Knight shot the Jones gelding past him as if he was tied and the race thereafter was never in doubt. Beauty Book was easily the best of the others and ran a pretty fair race all told. It seemed as if Eva Rice had a chance at the head of the stretch, but she faltered at the last eighth post and was thoroughly tired by the time the line had been reached, besides having been slightly cut. Brigade could not concede the weight nor was J. Martin strong enough to do him justice. He was never in the hunt at any stage of the race.

Julia Junkin took the faint-hearted Mabel Winn into camp in the second race when the latter appeared all over an easy winner. Mabel Winn started out with a big advantage and apparently running well within herself had a lead of nearly two lengths a furlong out, but the Brown filly gradually closed on her, catching her in the last fifty yards and beating her out easily by two lengths with the Reppas filly two lengths in front of Ernest Parham. There was a long delay at the post caused by the substituting of J. Martin for Davison on Kentucky Muddle, who ran into the outside rail in one of the breakaways and injured the latter's leg.

Brownie Anderson with a feather on her back beat out Bennett's Laureate in the fifth race in a drive after leading from the first quarter. She won by a length with Laureate one in front of Alaska who ran a fine race from a bad send-off and would probably have won with any kind of racing luck.

The last race of the day was taken by Hermann & Cassin's good colt Red Tip, who led from start to finish. Jaubert and Doreen closed on the colt when a furlong out, but Knight never let up on him, and under an energetic ride held his advantage to the end, winning by one length, with Doreen a neck in the lead of Jaubert, who was tiring at the end.

For an off day the sport was very good, although the attendance was not up to the standard, owing to the mediocre attractions.

For this afternoon a grand card is provided with the Young Handicap as the central attraction. A magnificent field of fourteen of the best horses at the track are named to start and the only thing to regret is that Sam Hildreth's crack Waring is not in the list of acceptances. Three American Derby winners and a Futurity winner are down to start in what is sure to be a fiercely contested and thrilling race. If the fourteen that have accepted weights go to the post the race will be worth $5,825 to the winner, a sum well worth coveting by any owner.

The other races are well filled and with good horses all through. The opening scramble for respects it should remain just as it was when handriding.

"It may seem to the inexperienced that great big swings of the whip, helped along by the weight of the body, hurt more, but I assure you not, swift wrist raps, well delivered, will have more effectual propulsive power. What would you think of a trotting-horse driver that swung around in his sulkey and threw the whip back until it touched the track, and then came forward with it for dear life? Why, he'd be rulled off for pulling. Yet that is just what many jockeys do every day. Of course, they are boys, and you cannot expect men's work from boys."

Went to post at 2:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Headwater grabbed the lead after the half had been run and was never afterward headed. Beauty Book was easily the best of the others. Eva Rice was cut down and stopped in the last sixteenth, as did Ben Rattle. Boney Boy had no chance from where he got off being completely out of the race at the club house turn. Brigade could not give the weight away and was never a contender. Van Hoorebeke as usual showed speed for six furlongs and then quit. Brigade pulled up very lame as in his last race.
Overweights—Disserter, 1 pound.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily. Miss Bennett had her speed with her and but for a short spell down the backstretch was always in front. The Rush, under punishment, looked like he was going to close in the last eighth, but he could not get up and was all out by the time the line had been reached. Gonfalon, slow to get on his stride, moved fast for a spell down the backstretch, but stopped all over in the last eighth. Anna Bain was run off her feet by the winner in the first half.
Scratched—26602 Guiliana, 112.

Winner—B. f. by Likely—Ado.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 20 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Julia Junkin wore down Mabel Winn in the last fifty yards and won drawing away. The latter tired and quit badly when she appeared all over a winner. Ernest Parham ran at about an even clip throughout. Kentucky Muddle showed a little speed. The others were never contenders. Kentucky Muddle in running out in one of the breakaways ran into the outside fence injuring one of Davison's legs. J. Martin was substituted and this was the cause of most of the delay.

Winner—Br. g. by Aerolithe—Kate Harper.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Leo Newell finished strongly but in the last fifty yards veered toward the inside rail slightly interfering with Impromptu, but not enough to change the result. The latter was much the best, being last at the first turn through an entanglement at the start. The amount of ground he made up took all the stamina out of him and he had little left to finish with. Conundrum tired after running a good seven furlongs. Rollick had enough after running six furlongs.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Brownie Anderson assumed command of her field after the first quarter had been run, but had to be driven out to the last ounce to stall off Laureate's bid at the end. The latter ran a fair race, but hung just a trifle in the last fifty yards. Alaska, off poorly, made up much ground and would probably have won with better racing luck. Econome ran at about an even clip throughout. Crocket had enough after six furlongs had been run. The others were never contenders.
Scratched—26630 Golden Scepter, 97; (26602) Captain Gaines, 106; (26658) Tammany Chief, 93.

Went to post at 2:48. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lelia Barr went to the front when called on and won with plenty in reserve. Delmarch ran a good race, but lost ground by making a wide turn into the stretch. Sailor King made up a lot of ground from a bad beginning and was coming strongly at the finish. Alzora showed early speed, but quit badly when challenged. Great American never was a contender. He has shown he can do better. Oak Maid will improve from this race.

Scratched—26665 Aurous, 106; 26059 Lady Silver, 101; 26062 Flaneur, 95; 26651 Dominick, 95. Lelia Barr, show, 3 to 2. Delmarch, show, 2 to 1. Sailor King, show, 1 to 2. Oak Maid, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c, by Resplendent—Punchy.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 28 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Tom Crabb skinned the rail when turning into the stretch, thereby saving much ground. He was eased up in the last seventy yards. J. Patrick had no mischances and ran his race. Tax Man was indifferently handled. Lucrusta tired in the run home. Garland can do better. The long delay at post may have ruined his chances.

Overweights—Lucrusta, 3 pounds. Tom Crabb, show, 8 to 5. J. Patrick, show, out. Tax Man, show, out. Garland, show, 7 to 10.

Went to post at 4:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Chappaqua outclassed his company. He was content to rate along until the stretch turn was reached, then came away and won as he pleased. All Saints was interfered with on the first turn, but came strongly at the end. Dollie Wagner, as usual, showed early speed, but tired after going seven eighths. Toddy Ladle and Lofter ceased to be contenders after going three-quarters. The former was eased up at the end. Flag of Truce was badly outrun in the first part of the race. Woodtrice ran well under bad handling.

Winner—B. c, by Quicklime—Belle Baden.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second driving. Paul Creyton, outrun in the first part of the race, came strongly through the stretch and caught The Common in the last sixteenth. The latter was prominent in a number of false breakaways and ran a good race. Dash quit badly when challenged. The Referee did not run as well as he did in his two previous efforts. Henry Zitt was never a contender and can do better. Jockey Handy, on Red Car, was kicked while at the post and Gannon was substituted.

Scratched—26614 Wire In, 107; 26612 Blazeband, 99. Paul Creyton, show, 7 to 10. The Common, show, evens. Dash, show, 3 to 5. The Referee, show, out. Henry Zitt, show, out.

Winner—B. g, by Wandering Jew—Lizzie Walton.

Went to post at 5:26. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Cad Hazel went to the front soon after the start and raced his field into subjection in the first five eighths but the effort told on him and he tired in the final eighth. Satire saved ground in the stretch and was gaining at the end. Foneda wanted to quit after going a half mile but Daly kept her to her task and she hung on gamely under punishment. Snark belongs in slower company. Talala should improve from this race.

Overweights—Talala, 1 pound. Cad Hazel, show, 1 to 2. Satire, show, out. Foneda, show, out. Talala, show, out.

Went to post at 5:55. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Boer had clear sailing and Daly took no chances. Ocie Brooks was well in motion when the flag dropped, but Thompson took her back and allowed himself to be caught in a jam soon after the start. Cogswell finished stoutly after being badly interfered with. Beau was also a sufferer from interference and pulled up lame. Racebud quit badly after showing speed early.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Charles—White Squall.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Scurry outclassed the field in the going and was never extended; was bid up from $2,000 to $2,600. In Shot was very badly handled and was allowed to fall out of contention on the backstretch but closed very gamely from the half home and is becoming very good. Himself ran in greatly improved form, due to the sloppy track. Military, badly handled, was easily second best.

Scratched—26665 Bobs, 110; 26575 Seminole, 110. In Shot, show, 7 to 10. Himself, show, evens. Military, show, 1 to 3.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second driving. Byrne of Roscrea was much the best, especially in the going. Cast Iron finished strongly and made up much ground from an indifferent start. Musidora tired at the end and evidently is better on a fast track. Sun Shower broke and ran green, was nearly left and finished strongly after closing up a big gap. Knight of Harlem and Star of the West were going well in the stretch. John Barleycorn displayed much speed to the last furlong and should improve.
